Farmer Goes Beserk Leaves Five Dead

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP) — A farmer beset with family problems ended his step-daughter's sixth birthday celebration by killing her, three other members of his family and himself in a drunken rage Thursday night.

Part of the birthday cake was still on the kitchen table, along with an empty whisky bottle, when officers charged the house after being called by the child's grandfather.

Sheriff Ray Holmes said Sammy Penter, 34, killed his wife, Windy, 35, his stepdaughter Belinda Gairhan, 6, his mother-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Byrd, 63, and his sister-in-law Mrs. Jimmy Moon to the house and shot them dead with a .30 caliber rifle as they walked in. Penter also called his father-in-law, W. J. Byrd, to the house, but Byrd brought two Trumann policemen.

The officers sat in the car while Byrd went to the house. He opened the door, saw the bodies, heard the click of the safety catch on the rifle and ran. A few minutes later, right after midnight, Penter ended the two-hour killing spree by putting a .22 caliber pistol under his chin and ended his life.

Officers found a note scribbled in green crayon on the kitchen table, but Holmes said it was incoherent.

The policemen, Herman Talley and Luther Taylor, radioed for police Chief Edgar Sullins and State Trooper Buren Jackson. By the time they arrived and stormed the house, Penter was dead.

The Penter house is two miles west of Trumann in one of the richest farming areas in

Marijuana Grown With Tall Corn

GREENVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Marijuana plants 8 feet tall were grown with the tall corn on a middle Georgia farm and processed in a barn.

Federal agents and Atlanta police said the flourishing marijuana farm they raided Thursday was the largest ever found in Georgia.

They arrested three persons, confiscated three cars and a 525-pound harvest of marijuana worth $52,500 on the wholesale market.

Blames U.S. for Trouble in Germany

By PRESTON GROVER
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union accused the United States today of trying to make the rules for Soviet policing of Western convoy traffic on the Berlin autobahn. The Russians warned they would not permit this.

A Russian note to the U. S. government rejected an American protest over the stalling of a U. S. Army convoy for 42 hours Nov. 4-5 because the Americans refused to dismount from their vehicles and be counted.

The Soviet reply renewed the threat of more interference with Allied troop convoys on the 110-mile lifeline highway between West Berlin and West Germany. The Allies insist they have the right to move on the autobahn as they like.

The Kremlin note said: "The claims of the American authorities to establish at their discretion the range of duties and manner of action of Soviet representatives at the checkpoint in checking American servicemen are in general absolutely untenable."

Since Oct. 10 the Russians have held up three American convoys and one British convoy at Soviet checkpoints on the autobahn because the convoy commanders refused to allow their men to be counted.

The Western Allies said their long-established procedure was to permit their troops to dismount for a Soviet headcount only if more than 30 men were aboard, not counting drivers and co-drivers.

The Western Powers sepiled out this procedure to the Soviet Union Oct. 29.

During the six-week period since Oct. 10, a number of other allied convoys with less than 30 passengers have made the autobahn trip with interference.

State Struck by Massive Thunderstorms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Massive thunderstorms erased the last traces of Arkansas' drought today and the Weather Bureau forecast hail and damaging winds for part of the state tonight and possible snow flurries for North Arkansas.

A tornado warning was in effect for a 120-mile wide band up the middle of Arkansas until 3 p.m. today.

At 10 a.m. Friday an unofficial 5.35 inches of rain fell in this area during a 24-hour period, emphatically ending the drought. Previously 1.69 inches had fallen making the month's unofficial total 7.04 inches.

The rain was accompanied by gusty winds, thunder and lightning. Firemen answered two calls caused by lightning, one last night to the Garrett Story home where a meter loop was hit. There was only damage to the meter. This morning lightning hit the Leo Morrison home on Rocky Moudn road but was easily put out by the Firemen.

All but the extreme east and southeast sections of the state got heavy rain Thursday night and Friday morning. Some areas got as much as four inches.

The Weather Bureau in Little Rock said thunderstorms later today may carry hail and damaging winds.

Skies were expected to clear late tonight and a cold front was expected, dropping temperatures and possibly bringing snow to North Arkansas.

Rainfall of more than two inches was common in West and Central Arkansas. The Weather Bureau said the runoff should fill stock ponds to overflowing in the hill country.

Low temperatures tonight were forecast in the 20s in the northwest to the low 40s in the southeast. Highs Saturday were expected to be 32 to 45, and the Saturday night forecast was for much colder.

Names Mrs. Rockefeller

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association for Mental Health has elected Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller of Morrilton, Ark., second vice president of the group at its annual meeting in Washington. Mrs. Rockefeller is president of the Arkansas Association for Mental Health.

Republicans to Meet Tuesday

The Hempstead County Republican Women will meet on Tuesday, November 26, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Branch on South Main Street. A highlight of the meeting will be a report from the three members who flew to Ft. Smith this month to attend the state convention of republican women. Mrs. John O'Dell, Mrs. Bob Moers, and Mrs. Lynn Harris will give the report. Plans for the election year will be discussed as well as other business.

Bulletin

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau in Little Rock issued a tornado warning today for most of Central Arkansas.

The forecast reads: Severe thunderstorms with one or two tornados, large hail and locally damaging winds are expected until 3 p.m. today in an area along and 120 miles east of a line from 20 miles southwest of Shreveport, La., to 10 miles north of Harrison.

Homicide, Suicide Was Epitaph

NEW YORK (AP) — A police entry of "homicide - suicide" was the tragic epitaph of a devoted mother and her retarded son.

The world in which Mrs. Rose Cohen had lived since 1926, when her son Israel was born, began to cave in last Wednesday when her husband, Benjamin, became seriously ill.

He was taken to a hospital for tests to determine if his illness is cancer.

Within hours after he was taken away, police said, Mrs. Cohen suffocated her son with a plastic bag then killed herself with sleeping pills.

A married daughter found the bodies of mother and son locked in an embrace in their Bronx apartment Thursday.

The father was not immediately told of the tragedy.

Youth Kills Self Buddhist Style

NIMES, France (AP) — An 18-year-old youth killed himself Thursday by pouring gasoline on his clothes and then lighting a match.

Police said the youth apparently selected this method after reading about the gasoline death suicides of Viet Nam Buddhists protesting the Diem regime.

Congolese Expel Entire Soviet Mission

By ROMIN MANNOK
Associated Press Staff Writer
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The Congolese government is expelling the Soviet diplomatic mission from Leopoldville for the second time in three years but Premier Cyrille Adoula says he is not severing diplomatic relations with Moscow.

The premier charged the Russians Thursday with subversive dealings with antigovernment exiles across the Congo River in neighboring Brazzaville.

Adoula set no deadline for Soviet Ambassador Sergei Nemtchina and his 100-member mission to leave but that the Russians probably would be given 48 hours.

Adoula said his government will consider the credentials of any new diplomats the Soviets might want to send.

There was no immediate Moscow reaction to the expulsion order.

Adoula said he did not have sufficient proof to support charges by members of his government that other Communist bloc nation and the United Arab Republic also were trying to subvert his government.

The expulsion order came two days after two Soviet diplomats were manhandled and arrested on their return from Brazzaville, the capital of the Congo Republic.

Officials said documents found on them proved "irrefutably" that they had been in contact with antigovernment exiles.

Car Hurtles Off of Pike's Peak

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — A runaway power car hurtled off the famous Pike's Peak car railway Thursday, carrying two workers to death.

Four companions leaped to safety when the brakes failed and the car started its uncontrolled descent down the 14,110-foot mountain.

Robert L. Rathburn, 51, Colorado Springs, and Raymond W. Claus, 39, Manitou Springs, died when the car left the rails on a curve, slashed through a power pole and crashed into an embankment.

The workers had boarded the car after routine maintenance work on a parallel electric line.

Protest Killing of 2 Prisoners

NEW YORK (AP) — About 600 demonstrators picketed the West 100th Street police station Thursday night, protesting the killing of two prisoners last Friday.

Five demonstrators were arrested for disorderly conduct. There were no injuries.

About 100 pickets protested the killing of Victor Rodriguez and Maximino Salerno, two youths arrested for molesting tenants in an upper West Side apartment house.

Patrolman James Edmundson said he shot the pair after Rodriguez pulled a gun and fired a shot in the patrol car taking them to the station.

Write-in Name Goes on Ballot

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office ruled today that even though Albert Johnson was a write-in candidate, he has the right to have his name listed on the ballot in a runoff election for mayor in the town of Okean in Randolph County.

J. Max Poe of Pocahontas, secretary of the Randolph County Election Commission, asked the office to lay down ground rules for the runoff.

Asst. Atty. Gen. John P. Gill said in an opinion that the question about a write-in candidate in a runoff was without precedent in reported cases. But, he said, state law requires listed on the ballot of any candidate who has "qualified in accordance with the law."

Gill said that since Johnson received enough votes to force his opponent, Vernie Judd, into a runoff, he had filled the qualification requirement.

Gill advised Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus must issue a call for the runoff election.

Rewards Offered in Murder Cases

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Rewards totaling $6,250 have been offered in four of the nine unsolved murder cases in the Greater Kansas City area this year.

In investment firm that employed Mrs. Shirley Lee Moore offered a $1,000 reward Thursday for her killer. She was found Wednesday stabbed eight times.

Rewards also have been posted in the deaths of Mrs. Patricia Willoughby, Henry O. Graham, and Martin Luther Graybeal.

Gov. Connally Also a Victim

DALLAS (AP) — President John F. Kennedy, thirty-sixth president of the United States, was shot to death today by a hidden assassin armed with a high-powered rifle.

Kennedy, 46, lived about 30 minutes after a sniper cut him down as his limousine left downtown Dallas. Newsmen said the shot that hit him was fired about 12:30 p.m. (CST). A hospital announcement said he died at approximately 1 p.m. of a bullet wound in the head.

Automatically, the mantle of the presidency fell to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, a native Texan who had been riding two cars behind the chief executive.

There was no immediate word on when Johnson would take the oath of office.

Kennedy died at Parkland Hospital where his bullet-pierced body had been taken in a frantic but futile effort to save his life.

DALLAS (AP) — A Secret Service agent and a Dallas policeman were shot and killed today, some distance from the area where President Kennedy was assassinated.

No other information was immediately available.

Lying wounded at the same hospital was Gov. John Connally of Texas, who was cut down by the same fusillade that ended the life of the youngest man ever elected to the presidency.

Connally and his wife had been riding with the President and Mrs. Kennedy.

The First Lady cradled her dying husband's bloodstained head in her arms as the presidential limousine raced to the hospital.

"Oh, no," she kept crying. Connally slumped in his seat beside the President.

Police ordered an unprecedented dragnet of the city, hunting for the assassin.

They believed the fatal shots were fired by a white man, about 30, slender of build, weighing about 165 pounds, and standing 5 feet 10 inches tall.

Shortly before Kennedy's death became known, he was administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. He had been the first Roman Catholic president in American history.

Even as two clergymen hovered over the fallen President in the hospital emergency room, doctors and nurses administered blood transfusions.

Kennedy died of a gunshot wound in the brain at approximately 1 p.m. (CST) according to an announcement by acting White House press secretary Malcolm Kilduff.

The new President, Lyndon Johnson, and his wife left the hospital a half hour later. Newsmen had no opportunity to question them.

The horror of the assassination was mirrored in an eyewitness account by Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., who had been riding three cars behind Kennedy.

"You could tell something awful and tragic had happened," the senator told newsmen before Kennedy's death became known. His voice breaking and his eyes red-rimmed, Yarborough said:

"I could see a Secret Service man in the President's car leaning on the car with his hands in anger, anguish and despair. I knew then something tragic had happened."

Yarborough had counted three rifle shots as the presidential limousine left downtown Dallas through a triple underpass. The shots were fired from above—possibly from one of the bridges or from a nearby building.

One witness, television reporter Mal Couch, said he saw a gun emerge from an upper story of a warehouse commanding an unobstructed view of the presidential car.

Kennedy was the first president to be assassinated since William McKinley was shot in 1901.

It was the first death of a president in office since Franklin D. Roosevelt died of a cerebral hemorrhage at Warm Springs, Ga., in April 1945.

Asst. presidential press secretary Mal Couch said Johnson was not hit. The new President reportedly was wounded.

Roosevelt had been enjoying a vacation when he died. McKinley had been shaking hands at a reception at an exposition in Buffalo, N.Y.

Kennedy and his wife had just passed the halfway point in a three-day speaking tour through Texas.

The President already had prepared a luncheon address for a Dallas audience before he Arkansas. Penter raised cotton and soybeans and the Penter and Byrd families are among the best known in Craighead County.

Holmes said Penter and his wife had been having trouble for some time.

The house showed signs of a struggle, the sheriff said. Holmes said Penter shot his wife in the chest at close range with the pistol.

Belinda apparently heard the commotion and came into the room, and Penter shot her twice, in the chest and once in the forehead, Holmes said.

That was at 10 p. m. At 11:30 Penter telephoned Mrs. Byrd at her home in Trumann and told her to come to the house, Holmes said. She was shot as she walked in the front door.

Then Penter called Mrs. Moon to come to the house. Her body was found in the doorway between the living room and the bedroom. Penter and his wife and Belinda lay on the bedroom floor.

At 11:50 p. m., Penter called Byrd. Byrd asked where his wife and daughters were and Penter said, "They're all over here asleep," Holmes reported.

Then Penter asked Byrd to come to the house. Byrd picked up the policemen, went to the house and found the tragedy. The officers said they had hunted with Penter and that he was one of the best marksmen in the area. He never fired at Byrd or the officers.

Mrs. Penter and Belinda were dressed in nightclothes. Penter was in his underwear.

Byrd, whose only other daughter was killed in a car-train wreck a year ago, was taken home in shock.

led by Christophe Gbenye, head of a Lumumbist group, and Andre Lubaya, a Kasai extremist leader implicated in a recent plot to arrest or murder members of Adoula's government.

Adoula said he had ordered the release of the two Soviet diplomats, embassy counselor Boris Voronin and press attache Yuri Mikotnykh, and of Benik Beknazarov - Juzbachev, correspondent of the Soviet Novosti news agency who was arrested early Thursday.

A Soviet official said today that only the correspondent had been released. But a witness said he saw a Congolese escort put Voronin aboard an airliner bound for Brussels Thursday.

The Soviet government delivered a stiff protest Thursday against the treatment of the diplomats.

The Congolese expelled both the Soviet and Czech missions Sept. 16, 1960, after army commander Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu seized power from leftist Premier Patrice Lumumba. Lumumba was later slain.

The Russians were allowed to return in 1961 after they pledged to respect Congolese sovereignty and to refrain from interfering in internal affairs.

DOROTHY DIX

—Reformed Drunkard, etc. . .

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen:
If it were not for my four lovely children I would long since have taken my life. Their father has been in and out of jail for drunken driving. Right now a suspended sentence hangs over his head. He also had to pay $2,000 to the court. I drive him to and from work. When drunk he used to beat me—I kept to myself, not wanting to worry my sick father.

My husband promised to make the easier for me when Father died but two months later he gave me a black eye and a broken jaw. I filed for divorce then withdrew it when he came begging me to take him back.

When our father passed I took my 18-year-old brother to live with us. While my husband was serving time or drunken driving, a traffic cop knocked on our door one morning at four A.M. My brother had been killed in an accident. I all but went crazy. That was just a year ago. I have been depressed and lonely ever since.

My husband is always finding fault with me and taking it out on our children.

The only time he treated me decent was when my brother left me a little insurance. With that money we got a brand new car, sold our old home and bought a better one. I spent the money thinking it would help my husband but it hasn't.

I am always home, keep the house spic and span and children neat. Having to drive him and do the housework puts me on the treadmill. Is there a solution to my problem? —Upset Wife and Mother.

Dear Upset: Your husband's fault-finding is symptomatic of the alcoholic's desperate struggle with himself to stay away from the bottle. You have a tough job on your hands, but cling to the comforting fact that your husband is not drinking now. This much you have accomplished.

Continue helping him in every way by finding out all you can about the nature of alcoholism. His morale and yours both need a boost which you are best able to provide because you have kept your feet on the ground and been strengthened by every blow you successfully withstood. Soon your children will be able to help. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "A Sense of Humor." A little laughter serves as a leaven in a grim situation.

Dear Helen: I go steady with a girl whose mother and daddy oppose her dating me. Each time they see us together they hit the ceiling.

They refuse to let me call on her so we meet downtown. I would tell her parents but she says No! I am 18, she 16 and we love each other very much. Should we break up or should I insist upon telling her parents the truth? —Upset

Dear Upset: If you love this girl, don't let anything unworthy of her or your self-respect. Be manly, tell her parents the truth, but don't lose sight of the fact that your prime responsibility now should be your education.

Dear Helen: I am an aspiring writer suffering from the blank page bogies. I love to write novels and plays but how does one learn? Though not college-bred, I am a reader. The Bible, Greek plays and some fiction is my range. I'm expecting a baby next spring yet still

Another Is Jailed at Helena

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — Helena Mayor William Stratton said another anti-segregation demonstration organizer was arrested Wednesday night while Helena Negroes who took part in three sit-ins Saturday paid fines and left jail.

Arrested was Bruce Jordan, 20, Negro of Pine Bluff, who is a field secretary for the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). Thirty-two persons were arrested Saturday.

Stratton said Helena police would set Jordan's bond at $750 on charges of disturbing the peace, refusing to leave a place of business at the request of the owner and under a city code of breaching the peace.

George Miller, a Negro, owner of a movie house at Helena, and Frank Jordan, a Negro, a Helena undertaker, carried funds to the police department Wednesday night to pay fines for 19 Helena Negroes, who were then released.

Still in jail are William Hansen, 24, of Pine Bluff, a white man, and John Bradford, 22, of Mound Bayou, Miss., a Negro. Both are SNCC field secretaries.

Hansen and Bradford were convicted in municipal court Wednesday of violating the law by urging Negroes to conduct sit-in demonstrations at a Helena drug store and cafeteria.

George Howard Jr. of Pine Bluff, a Negro attorney and president of the state branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the convictions would be appealed to circuit court. Appeal bonds were set at $750 each.

Miller said the money used to pay fines of the demonstrators from Helena was contributed by "the people of Helena."

Two other Negroes from Pine Bluff remained in jail because their fines had not been paid.

Button, Button Who Paid for Buttons

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Button, Button, who paid for the buttons?

"I paid for the buttons," said A.G. Trimble Wednesday referring to lapel buttons supporting Gov. William W. Scranton for president.

Trimble, 83, president of the A.G. Trimble Co. that made the buttons, added:

"I made them on speculation. No one ordered them. I sent them to Harrisburg, to see if anyone wanted to buy them. So far, no one has."

State School Millage Up One Mill

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas increased its average school millage by exactly one mill to a new high of 38.57 mills in the September school election.

It was the fourth straight year in which the average millage figure has shown an increase, starting with a 35.52 average in 1960.

The average was compiled by H. Z. Snell, budget director for the Education Department from reports submitted by the state's 45 school districts.

Snell said 323 districts voted the same millage as last year, 80 approved an increase, and 12 proposed an increase which was defeated at the polls.

For the first time, Snell said, no district proposed a reduction of millage in the last election.

An earlier report showed that Tynrona in Poinsett County and Dyess in Mississippi County have the highest millage. Each will collect 52 mills next year. Tynrona increasing from 49 and Dyess from 45.

Parkdale in Ashley County, Fourche Valley in Yell County and the Fulton County District voted minimum 18 mills set by the state constitution.

Snell said the fact that increases were approved in 80 of 92 districts proposing them indicated that school patrons generally are willing to give financial backing to their school boards.

Snell's figures show that the average millage has increased 14.17 mills since 1949 when the state effected a major consolidation of schools.

Starting in 1949, the average millage increased for eight straight years to 37.25 in 1957. Then it dropped for two years as school districts began to reap financial benefits from increased state aid provided by a 1957 tax boost.

The average dropped to 36.07 in 1958 and dropped again to 34.68 in 1959 before beginning a number of Arkansas counties so classified.

GENIUS ABOUND, BUT YOU SEE —

All newspapers have a problem — everybody wants to write a "column." Home-grown experts on everything from bird-watching to bee-keeping wander in and deposit reams of manuscript which they're willing to let us publish, at $25 a piece, five days a week. We are, of course, grateful. By and large, they are artful, interesting people, and it grieves us to say "No." We still need to say "No."

We can buy, for one thing, syndicated articles by nationally-recognized writers on any subject you can name for no more than a dollar a piece, five dollars a week. We just don't have, for another thing, sufficient space to accommodate essays on such subjects as "Primal Man" even if the series were free.

We don't publish unsolicited poetry. We still receive it in batches. So thanks, but no. Almost everybody wants to write a "column." Even some of us. (The Asheville, N.C., Citizen)

ASC Won't Waiver the Age Limit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee refused Thursday to waive the 70-year age limit for chairmen of County ASC committees, preventing Tony Dehls of Stone County from seeking reelection.

Dehls termed the refusal political, saying it was done because he was a Republican and refused to be a "yes man."

Mark Glover of Rison, acting chairman of the state committee, said the committee felt it was not in the best interests of the ASC to waive the age limit and that operations in the county committee had been unsatisfactory lately.

The 1963 breakdown shows that the districts have pledged 21.56 mills of the total for operation and 17.01 for debt service. Part of the debt service money is used, however, in many districts for operation expenses.

Chevy II Nova 4-Door Sedan

Now—'64 Chevy II . . .

with a V8 engine

Now you see it. Now you don't. When a Chevy II does that kind of disappearing act you know without looking twice: It's a '64 with a V8 engine.

That's right. A full-grown 195-hp Turbo-Fire V8.* It's available for the first time this year along with a choice of three other engines—the standard 4 (in 100 Series sedans), the standard 6 and a new 155-hp 6.* (And all of them maintain their high spirits on modest amounts of regular gasoline.) But the changes aren't confined to what happens when you slip into the driver's seat. There are new styling features like the tasteful grille design and trim accents, for instance. And the larger self-adjusting brakes that further reduce upkeep on a car that already has a reputation of coming about as close to perpetual motion as anything on four wheels can get.

The place to get the full details on the '64 is your Chevrolet dealer's. And after you've got them, we hope you'll attend to one further detail yourself. Drive it.

Indians Take on Trinity

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas State's Indians venture to San Antonio, Tex., Saturday to play Trinity University, which just posted its first football victory of the season.

Trinity knocked off Arlington State last week.

Both teams have losing records, with Trinity at 1-6-1 and Arkansas at 2-6.

But three of the Indians' losses have come in the last minute of play—against the Citadel, Murray State of Kentucky and South Dakota State.

Obert Logan paces Trinity's ground game. Last year he gained 713 yards on 139 carries for a 5.1-yard average. He was named the outstanding back of the year at Trinity last year and received honorable mention in the 1962 Associated Press Little All-American poll.

Dee Keller, a senior quarterback, and Logan make up most of the Tiger offense.

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon
By Adelina McElfresh
(Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. © 1960 Adelina McElfresh)

XXIII

The Robertses were waiting. Nard was a tall, square-shouldered, football-hero sort of man who rose from the settee in the foyer as she entered.

"I'm Nard Roberts. Dr. Kenyon."

Ann gave him her hand. "I'm glad you came, Mr. Roberts." Her smile included his wife. "Dr. Von Smithers telephoned this morning."

With a nod the young woman said, "He said he would, as soon as I left the office." A troubled expression touched her face. But it was not the tormented look that had been there before. Ann thought as she led the way to her office. When they were inside Mrs. Roberts went on, "I have seen Dr. Lyle, Dr. Kenyon. He—he was very angry."

Yes, Ann thought. He would be. She said quietly, "I'm sorry about that."

"He's the one who should be sorry," Nard Roberts sounded grim. "Dr. Kenyon, we've had him ever since we came to Ledbie. Some of the fellows at the company said he was the doctor. You know, Tops and all that." Ann nodded and he went on, "We were pretty crushed after that Caesarian and, after Nora's trouble started, when Dr. Lyle said there had better not be any more children unless we took Caesarian into consideration. It has been — pretty rugged."

"Yes," Ann agreed, "it would be."

"So now you and Von Smithers say it's all a myth—maybe that isn't the medical word for it," the earnest young face softened. "What next, Dr. Kenyon?"

Ann didn't smile. "Just this. Get it out of your heads, both of you, that there is anything wrong with Nora. Oh, I know it isn't going to be easy," she said quickly when Nora Roberts started to speak. "We've got a lot of wrong ideas to untangle but one of these days I'm going to deliver Nora Roberts junior."

She saw the tears spring to Nora Roberts's eyes. "Oh, Nard — Dr. Kenyon!"

Maybe it wasn't preferred psychiatric procedure, Ann thought later when the Robertses had gone. But Nora Roberts had left the office happily tearful and she was coming back next month. Ann hesitated about suggesting an earlier visit because she didn't want to substitute one set of fears for another but Nard and Nora Roberts had their eyes open and were facing squarely into their problem — and it was their problem, not just Nora's.

The hospital had settled down for the night; the basement corridor along which she and Peter McDonnell went toward the ambulance entrance was enfolded in an eeriness that the anemic artificial light did little to dispel and Ann almost shuddered as the memory of her introduction to Ledbie Memorial Hospital assaulted her again. As if sensing her unease, and its cause, Peter asked, "Remember that night?"

"I'll never forget it."

He didn't look at her. "I'm afraid I won't either. It's at times like that—" He broke off and Ann said, "That we need a second emergency room."

"Maybe we'd better find out how Nard Roberts does things at the plant. He gets things

Final Road Game for Cats at Arkadelphia

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sports Writer

Tonight the Hope Bobcats take on the Badgers at Arkadelphia. This is the last game for the Badgers, and the last road game for the Cats.

Arkadelphia seems to be somewhat the underdog in this match, since they have only a 2-7-1 this season, and they just haven't gotten the breaks that they deserve. Hope is now 9-1, and the Cats are shooting for victory ten in a row.

The Badger offense seems to be quarterback Raboo Rogers. He throws a lot, and does a creditable job of running. Arkadelphia has been troubled by dissension this year, but some nights they have been able to do a pretty good job.

All in all, things seems to spell smooth sailing for the Cats, but this is certainly no reason for fans to stay at home. After all, the Cats are having one of the greatest seasons in years. They have won the District already. Their only loss was to AAA Texarkana, rated as one of the top teams in the state. Speaking of tops, Hope is Class AA champ for Arkansas.

They're a great ball club, so follow them to Arkadelphia, and Boost the Bobcats.

Cards, Giants Will Tangle on Sunday

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

You can't score if you don't have the ball. The coaches call it ball control.

And that's the way the St. Louis Cardinals plan to play against the New York Giants Sunday in what shape up as the top pro football game of the day. A full slate of 11 games is on tap with every team in both the National and American Leagues in action.

Just as a week ago when they upset the Cleveland Browns, a victory over the Giants is a MUST for the Cardinals to stay in contention for the Eastern Conference NFL title. In fact, a St. Louis victory could very well create a three-way tie between the Giants, the Cardinals and the Browns.

The Chicago Bears, who gained undisputed possession of first place in the Western Conference by beating Green Bay last Sunday, tangle with the dangerous Steelers at Pittsburgh in another potential NFL struggle. In the others Dallas is at Cleveland, Baltimore at Los Angeles, Detroit at Minnesota, Washington at Philadelphia and Green Bay takes on San Francisco at Milwaukee.

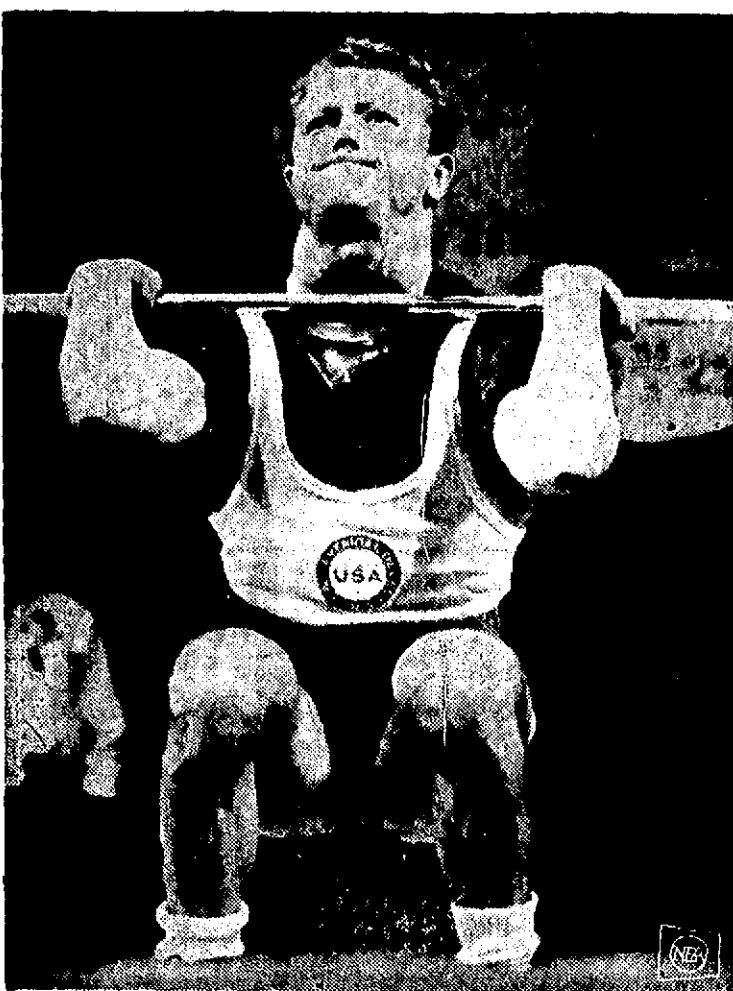

In the American League Houston is at San Diego in a battle of divisional leaders, Oakland is at Denver, Buffalo is at Boston and Kansas City at New York in a Polo Grounds set in direct conflict with the NFL clash between the Cardinals and Giants just a hop, skip and jump away at Yankee Stadium.

The Giants whipped the Cardinals 38-21 earlier this month in St. Louis as part of their five-game winning streak.

A St. Louis victory, coupled with a Cleveland triumph, would create the triple tie between the Cards, Giants and Browns. Each would have an 8-3 record.

Pittsburgh, 6-3-1, still has little hopes and if the Steelers upset the Bears, a St. Louis victory would really snarl the Eastern Conference standings. Not only that, but a Pittsburgh victory, coupled with a Green Bay triumph, again would tie the Bears and Packers for first in the West.

Fullback Rick Casares is lost to the Bears, but the current edition of the old Monsters of the Midway still are expected to beat the Steelers now that their first conference title in seven years is within their grasp. In-

UPLIFTING EXPERIENCE—Isaac Berger strains as he finishes second in the featherweight class of the World Weight Lifting Championships in Stockholm. The little strong man from York, Pa., with 117.5-105-145, finished behind only Yoshinobu Miyake of Japan.

Weekend Play May Clear Bowl Picture

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

A half-dozen conference titles and trips to the Rose and Orange Bowls go on the line Saturday while a score of tradition-hallowed games spice the next to last big college football weekend of the season.

The key games pit Illinois at Michigan State and Oklahoma at Nebraska. All four teams hold national rankings and the winner of each gains a major bowl berth.

Still another bowl spot, the host role in the Rose Bowl, could be settled in the fight between Big Six leader Washington and Washington State, one of the many traditional games that defy the form sheets.

Probably the most hallowed of all is the 80th clash of Yale and Harvard, this time at New Haven, Conn. Harvard has a slim chance to gain the Ivy title, but—following league rules—will not be eligible for bowl bids.

Among the others, Arizona can clinch the Western Athletic Conference title by beating New Mexico while Duke and North Carolina tangle at Durham, N.C., with a chance to clinch a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Several of the big ones hold off for a week before their traditional wind-up games. Top-ranked Texas, the only remaining unbeaten, untied team and already certain of the host spot in the Cotton Bowl, closes against old foe Texas A&M Thanksgiving Day.

Second-ranked Navy, a prime bowl contender, closes its regular season at Philadelphia Nov. 30, shooting for its fifth straight triumph over Army Mississippi. No. 3 nationally, waits until Nov. 30 to close out against Mississippi State while Alabama, No. 6, plays Auburn the same day.

Auburn, ranked ninth on a 7-1 record, goes against Florida State Saturday, and fifth-ranked Pitt visits old rival Penn State.

Mississippi is a top candidate for the Southeastern Conference title and a shot at either the Sugar or Orange Bowls. Navy, Pitt, Alabama and Auburn all are prime bowl contenders.

The Michigan State-Illinois and Oklahoma-Nebraska games remain the featured Saturday attractions.

Michigan State and Illinois are ranked fourth and eighth, respectively, in the nation, each with a 6-1-1 record. Each has an explosive ground game and a grudging defense. Either could win the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl trip with a victory.

While Michigan State and pick up all the marbles on a tie, Michigan State is 4-0-1 in the league, Illinois 4-1-1.

Oklahoma is No. 6 at 7-1 and Nebraska No. 10 at 8-1. The winner automatically goes to the Orange Bowl. It's the wind-up for Nebraska, while Oklahoma has yet to face off-beaten Oklahoma State.

Pitt is No. 5 at 7-1 but has two tough opponents en route to a major bowl berth. The Panthers have a major foe in Penn State, 7-2, Saturday, then close against dangerous Miami, Fla.

The host spot in the Rose Bowl depends on two games, Washington - Washington State and Southern California-UCLA.

Injured quarterback Bart Starr may play for Green Bay for the first time in five games while Jimmy Brown of Cleveland can set and NFL season rushing mark by getting 81 yards against Dallas. He now has 1,447 yards and he set the record of 1,527 five years ago.

The Houston at San Diego fray is the top game in the AFL, and it is being billed as a preview of the championship battle in December between the divisional title winners. The Oilers lead the Eastern Division with a 6-4 mark while the Chargers 8-2, head the Western Division.

With the loser facing elimination, the Buffalo at Boston game is of No. 2 importance in the AFL. The teams now are tied at 5-5-1 for the runner-up spot behind Houston in the East. The Bills pulled out a 28-21 over the Patriots in their first meeting this season.

The New York Jets, still with a faint hope at 4-5-1, expect to stay in the running by beating Kansas City. The Chiefs, last year's AFL champions, have only a tie to show in their last six games.

Thomas Is Favored Over J. Persol

NEW YORK (AP)—Chicago's Allen Thomas is a 4-1 favorite to spoil Johnny Persol's hopes of making a storybook debut as a winning substitute at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The 22-year-old light heavyweight contender figures to have too much punch and experience for the unbeaten Brooklyn shipping clerk in the television 10-round.

Persol was signed hurriedly Wednesday to sub for Mauro Mina, the Peruvian challenger who was barred from fighting Thomas because he had undergone an operation for a detached retina of the left eye.

Unbeaten in 85 bouts as an amateur, Persol turned pro this year and has a 9-0 record, including three knockouts. He received a 10 for his first pro fight hoping to be impressive and get a crack at a ranking fighter.

Thomas also 22, is the No. 9 contender. He has a 19-2-1 record, including 11 knockouts. The Chicagoan is under the tutelage of Archie Moore, former light heavyweight champion.

Starting time for the ABC-TV fight is 10 p.m. ST.

Scoring will be by the rounds system.

UP FOR GRABS—All hands reach for the ball in Columbus to capture an incomplete pass from Ohio State quarterback Don Unverforth to Paul Warfield, extreme right. Ohio State's Bob Stock, 80, Jim Warren, 22, of Illinois with teammate Mike Dundy, 41, get in the act.

Pimlico's $75,000 Race Sat.

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 1963 northern thoroughbred racing season is in its waning days but there's still plenty of money around for the horses Saturday with the $75,000 added Pimlico Futurity the richest attraction.

The 1-16 miles of the Futurity figures to attract 14 2-year-olds and if that many start it'll be worth $176,250 with $110,012 going to the winner. The second richest race on the agenda is the two miles of the $50,000-added Display Handicap at Aqueduct.

Best known of the probable Pimlico Futurity field are Mrs. Marion R. Frankel's Bupers, Reginald Webster's Traffic and John W. Hanes' Breakspear. Bupers won the Futurity at Aqueduct, Traffic the Hopeful at Saratoga and Breakspear finished first in the Futurity Trial at Pimlico Monday only to be disqualified and placed fourth for interference.

Other probable starters include Even Exchange, a stablemate of Traffic who will start only if there is an off track; Murad, Nenemoosha, Phantom Shot, Quadrangle, Ramant, Roman Column, Sub Commander and Orientalist. All will carry 122 pounds.

Paul Bongarzone's front-running Dean Carl packs top weight of 121 pounds in the Display and is the probable choice.

Aqueduct officials look for a field of seven, including Sunrise Flight, surprise winner of the Gallant Fox who'll pack 116 pounds with Larry Adams in the saddle. Other probable starters are Smart, 115; the entry of Master Dennis, 111, and Garwol, 109; Guadalcanal, 109 and York, 109. With seven starters the race will be worth about $56,000 with $39,000 going to the winner.

Porkers Go Against Tech on Saturday

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) The Arkansas Razorbacks wind up a luckless season Saturday afternoon in a battle with Texas Tech for fifth place in the Southwest Conference standings.

Both teams are 2-4. That's surprising because Arkansas was the pre-season league favorite and Tech was the pre-season cellar pick.

The Razorbacks will go with the same sheaf of young players that have given a good account of themselves in a 4-5 season. Porker Coach Frank Broyles pointed out this week that no team has scored more than two touchdowns on Arkansas.

Broyles will send junior quarterback Fred Marshall into a starting role despite a shoulder injury suffered in last week's 14-7 loss to Southern Methodist. Marshall engineered a quick Porker touchdown before the Ponies stifled the Arkansas attack.

The Hogs will have to stop Tech halfback Don Anderson, the No. 2 ball carrier in the SWC with 531 yards. And Tech will be interested in nailing Razorback sophomore fullback Jack Jim Lindsey, who is third in rushing with 424 yards.

The 2 p.m. game, homecoming for Arkansas, marks the Should Favored Washington win in the Huskies would have the best record, 4-1, but a less could toss the Big Six into a jumble. UCLA and Southern Cal each are 2-4 going in.

The television fare is split by regions, with Harvard-Yale to be shown in the East. The South will see Clemson vs. South Carolina while the rest of the nation gets Wisconsin-Minnesota. All are on CBS.

Saratoga Takes Spring Hill

Saratoga captured two of three games at Spring Hill Nov. 19. The Spring Hill Junior boys came through 35 to 22 with Ronnie Kidd making 16, Scotty Key 11 and J. McJunkins had 10 for Saratoga.

The Saratoga Senior girls racked up a 31 to 15 win. C. Fontaine had 8 and A. Arnold 7 for the winners.

Saratoga Senior boys edged Spring Hill 60 to 58 in a close one. T. Porter made 24, T. McJunkins and J. Hughes 11 each for the winners. Gary Kidd had 27 for Spring Hill.

Picking the Pro Winners on Weekend

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Pittsburgh and St. Louis can throw the National Football League into a wild scramble that could result in playoffs in both divisions if they can upset the Chicago Bears and New York Giants Sunday.

The Steelers, having upended Cleveland two weeks ago, barely sneaked past Washington last week while the Bears were beating Green Bay for the second time.

Chicago, leading the Western Conference by one game, must whip the Steelers at Pittsburgh because the Packers figure to take it out on the weak San Francisco 49ers at Milwaukee.

The Steelers still are on the fringe of Eastern Conference race. They need a win to stay alive. If they upset the Bears, if St. Louis defeats the Giants and if Cleveland wins as expected over Dallas, there will be triple tie in the East Pittsburgh then would be only one-half game back.

With four weeks to go the old batting average is 49-20-1 in the NFL, 18-16-3 in the AFL for an over-all 67-34-4. Here we go again (all games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL
Chicago 21, Pittsburgh 17 — Not even John Henry Johnson and Ed Brown in a mood for revenge can crack the Bear defense.

New York 31, St. Louis 21 — Y.A. Tittle threw four TD passes against the Cards in a 38-21 victory Nov. 3. Loss of Dick Lynch may open Sonny Randle for Charley Johnson's pitches but Card passer will get the big rush again.

Cleveland 28, Dallas 21 — The Browns rolled it up on the Cowboys earlier 41-24 and last home game could be reason to turn Jimmy Brown loose again.

Green Bay 35, San Francisco 7 — And how would you like to be playing the Packers this week? 49ers showed nothing against Giants.

Washington 27, Philadelphia 21 — Norm Snead-Bobby Mitchell battery clicking again but defense still shaky. Sonny Jurgensen's return could be decisive.

Minnesota 24, Detroit 21 — Despite 28-21 Lion victory in October, injuries have hit Detroit defense again with Night Train Lane doubtful.

Baltimore 20, Los Angeles 14 — California trips usually result in letdown by Colts but a shaky vote for Baltimore and Johnny Unitas over Roman Gabriel, mostly on Colts' pass defense.

Green Bay 31, Detroit 14 (Thanksgiving Day) — Hardly first time in the seven year rivalry that Texas Tech has come into the game with a better record (5-4) than the Hogs.

With Marshall and Lindsey in the Razorback backfield will be soph tailback Jack Braswell and junior wingback Stan Sparks. Tech goes with James Ellis at quarterback Johnny Agan opposite Anderson at left half, and James Zanios at fullback.

Fullback Leo Lowery probably will not see action for Tech. Neither will halfback Roger Gill who underwent surgery for a shoulder injury this week.

Parker Has Trickery for the Bears

By LOU PRATO

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Judging by his actions you would think Coach Buddy Parker of the Pittsburgh Steelers has devised some trickery to spring on the Chicago Bears at Forbes Field Sunday.

But by his words, he apparently doesn't think it will do him any good.

In a secret maneuver Thursday Parker shifted his team's practice session from their regular site at wide open South Park to the private confines of Forbes Field.

"I just wanted more privacy," Parker said. "I do this now and then when I think the opposing coach has too many spies around. Besides, what George (Halas) doesn't know doesn't hurt him."

Sunday's game could affect both division races.

A Pittsburgh defeat would eliminate the fourth-place Steelers from contention in the east. With a 6-3-1 record compared to first place New York's 8-2 mark they are at best a long shot title hopeful.

A Steeler victory combined with an expected Packers' win over San Francisco would drop the Bears, now 9-1, into a first place Western Division tie with Green Bay.

"The pressure's on the Bears," Parker said. "They can't afford to lose for they have the Packers breathing down their necks."

Phils, Travelers Sign New Pact

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies of the National League renewed agreements with three clubs Thursday, including the Arkansas Travelers, to complete their farm system for the 1964 baseball season.

The other clubs were Chattanooga of the Class AA South Atlantic League and Miami of the Class A Florida State League.

Manager of the Class AAA International League Travelers will be named later, the Phils announced.

week ago as St. Louis beat Cleveland for the first time in nine years, 20-14.

Tittle, the NFL's leading passer, picked St. Louis' secondary apart the first time these two clubs met. Yate fired four TD passes as New York romped 38-21. But New York Coach Alie Sherman thinks the Cards will be a lot tougher this time around.

St. Louis will be in better shape physically for Sunday's clash. New York's doubtful starters include Dick Lynch, defensive safety out with a head injury and Alex Webster, whose left knee makes him a question mark. Dick Pesonen will fill in for Lynch and Joe Morrison, who gained 98 yards against San Francisco last week inheriting Webster's fullback spot.
